

Economic History Society

(Charity Nos. 228494; SC038304)

Women's Committee 22nd Annual Workshop

Ashmolean Museum
Oxford University

Programme

Saturday 12 November

Registration and Coffee 9:00–9:30am

Opening Remarks 9:30–10:00am

Professor Nick Mayhew and Dr Helen Paul

Plenary lecture 10:00–11:00am

Professor Avner Offer, All Souls College, Oxford

'Housing as an Asset in Britain, c. 1870–2010'

Session 1 11:15–1:15pm

Methodological Approaches

Chair: Dr D'Maris Coffman

Professor David Ormrod (Rutherford College, University of Kent, Canterbury)

'Town and Countryside Revisited: Urban and agricultural rent movements in London and the South East, 1400–1914'

Dr Catherine Casson (University of Birmingham)

'Property Rents and Values in Urban England: An Introduction to the Project'

Ms Zoë Crisp (Trinity Hall, Cambridge)

'Housing and private open space in the nineteenth century'

Lunch 1:15–2:15pm

Plenary lecture 2:15–3:00am

Professor Jane Humphries, All Souls College, Oxford

'Some Thoughts on Home and Housing in Working-Class Autobiographies'

Session 23:00-5:00pm*Comparisons: Gender, Space, Time*Chair: Professor Nick Mayhew

Dr Sarah Rees Jones (University of York)
'Women and Rents in York before 1400.'

Mr Nicholas Dimsdale (The Queen's College, Oxford)
'Building and the British Economy 1750-1913: Some Empirical Results'

Dr Eoin McLaughlin (Edinburgh) and Dr Chris Colvin (European University Institute)
'Raiffeisenism abroad: Why did German microfinance fail in Ireland but prosper in the Netherlands?'

Tea and Coffee5:00-5:30pm*Closing Remarks*5:30-6:00pm*Dr D'Maris Coffman

End of Workshop

This workshop was organised by Dr D'Maris Coffman and jointly hosted by the Winton Institute for Monetary History, Oxford and Centre for Financial History, Cambridge.