CALL FOR PAPERS

A workshop for postgraduate and early career researchers working on CAMPAIGNING IN CONTEMPORARY SOCIETY HISTORIES AND POLICIES

This one-day event will feature papers from postgraduate and early career researchers working on the contemporary history of campaigning and its impact on social change and on policy. Those papers will focus on problems and issues the speakers have come across in their research, rather than simply presenting their findings.

Those problems and issues will then be the focus of a roundtable discussion, and the day will feature talks from Professor Duncan Tanner and Professor Pat Thane.

If you would like to give a paper, you should submit a 300 word proposal to Chris Moores at CIM305@bham.ac.uk by Friday 25 September 2009.

If you have any queries, please contact Chris Moores at CIM305@bham.ac.uk

This workshop, hosted by the Voluntary Action History Society and supported by the Economic History Society, will be held at the University of Birmingham on Friday 13 November 2009
